

Departmental Vision:

To create independent pupils whose God given talents are nurtured and shared.

Learning develops a knowledge of culture, their environment and an understanding of the relevance of design and creativity in the wider world.